Comments:	The court order was drafted and approved. Before taking it to court, I once again contacted the owner to follow up on the last warning issued. The owner then told me that the dog is no longer there. He said that the owner came to take the dog and then gave it to someone else. He doesn't know where though. He did say thag he is waiting for his new dog to arrive. I spoke to Jaco about this case, he advised that we must reschedule this matter for a follow up when he gets his new animal.
