

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                  |
|--------------|------------------|
| Building:    |                  |
| Street:      | 7 9TH AVENUE     |
| Suburb:      | DA GAMA PARK     |
| Postal Code: | 7975             |
| Date:        | 2024-01-22       |
| Time:        | 14:22            |
| Inspector:   | STEPHEN BENJAMIN |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CALL RECORD - RECEIVED                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2024-01-23                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Comments:       | I CALLED THE COMPLAINANT TO ARRANGE A DATE TO COLLECT HER DOG AS SHE SAYS SHE IS A VERY BUSY PERSON SHE WILL LIAISE WITH HER HUSBAND I TOLD HER SHE NEEDS TO CONTACT US SO WE CAN ARRANGE TO COLLECT AS OUR DRIVER WAS THERE TO COLLECT AND WAS TURNED AWAY AS THE OWNER WASNT HOME |