Comments: START COMPILING & FINALISING DOCKET CONTENT

I will hopefully be able to start focusing on compiling this docket by Friday, 15 February 2024.

Prior to this docket, I have to prioritise finalising the docket content for INSP189862 & INSP190184. Additionally, I thereafter have to action INSP191964, INSP192023/INSP191980, & INSP194524.

Any other task given to me will be put aside until such time I have completed my urgent overdue cases.

Cases become much weaker the later they are opened after the transgression (the more time that passes after the offence has been committed). Although there is no general time limit on a docket being opened (it is advisable to open a case within 6 months of the crime), it negatively impacts the investigation and collection of evidence by the IO which increases the chances of the court withdrawing the case due to insufficient evidence.

From now on, I must first finalise old dockets and INSP cases. Thereafter and once I have caught up, cases will be compiled as they come in.
