Comments: Today, the respondents are coming back to the SPCA. We will only agree to give Zeus, the one dog back, provided the owner agrees to sterilising Zues. Skye (the underweight dog that was chained) and Storm (the underweight dog that was left free roaming on the property) will not be going back to their owners. The woman claimed she doesn't even like dogs but they are her late husband's dogs and her daughter, who is bipolar, is attached to the one dog. These dogs will not be given back, even sterilised. Zeus's owner must agree to sterilisation, provide proof of ownership, and fill out the formal claim should he wish to get Zeus back.
