Comments:	I contacted the complainant to explain that we did not find any contraventions the last time we were at the property as we were also inside the responden't house. The complainant said that the owner is sometimes away from the house for 3 days on end because it is a holiday house. I told the complainant she will have to provide us with some sort of evidence to prove this as we cannot act without it. She understood and thanked me for giving her the additional information.
