Comments:	Upon arrival at given location after driving up and down the street I did not see the owner in question or his animal. With the assistance of control I contacted a number which was for the Campsbay control room to which the gentleman gave me the original complainants contact number 082 654 3826. He also mentioned that they advised the lady against logging a case with us as the gentleman is a vagrant, but does not beg with the dog. Instead that he looks well after his animal. I then tried calling the complainant's number, but the phone rang straight to voice-mail.
