Comments:	Apon arrival at this property, we met with Ben who is a brother of the owner, he informed us that the owner was not at home, however we observed 1x German Sheppard on the property and the other one was not there, when i asked about the Second dog, i was informed by Ben that it no longer on the property, it died from an accident. I decided to call the owner, as per our cellphone discussion, he informed me that his male German Sheppard was knocked by the car and died while he was taking them for a walk, from that situation he assumed that the other one was in traumatized by the accident and that was when he decided not to sterilized her, however he is still willing to her get sterilized and he would like to get help with sterilization.
