Subject: RE: COGH SPCA : Dog in hot car

The car guard advised that the dog had been there for approx 10mins before I arrived and it took me about 10mins to find the owner.

So I would estimate approx 30 mins + -

There was another lady there with me who was very concerned and when the man came out to the car and had another 'go' at me she stepped forward to also tell him that there was insufficient ventilation .

She also got given a mouthful of abuse
