This last fight before she killed the last dog. My mom called me to come help get Kiley's dogs apart. When I got there both dogs were covered in blood and wouldn't let go. I went back to my house to get a blow horn hoping that the sudden sound would give them a moment of pause so we can separate them. It didn't work. James was also there and he seemed to be in better control of the situation so I left

The previous fight was a few years ago. Kiley shouted for JP to come help. JP went there, one dog bit Kiley when she tried to separate them.
JP managed to get them apart and put them in 2 separate rooms. The next day she had one of the dogs killed

Thank you so much 🙏

I'll speak to a vet about ideal weight... I am by NO means starving him...

His hips was very bad when I first got him... But I apparently can't fucking win can I...

His tummy is sucked right in and if you run your hands along them they're protruding. He definitely needs a bit more weight .
Perhaps around 4 or 5kg. He currently weighs 33kg
