Comments Upon arrival I met with a lady named Farazanah Amardien. I introduced myself and stated my reason for being there. She informed that they will not be slaughtering today. She called her son and asked him to tell me about their plans. I spoke to the man named Rashied who told me that they would slaughter the next day.

I informed him that my observations were that they did not have the proper facilities to slaughter any of the animals on the property.

I issued a warning stating the following:
Your facility lacks the proper infrastructure to humanely restrain cattle. You are therefore not permitted to slaughter cattle.

A tilting crush is required for humane restraint. Tethering is not allowed under any circumstances.

You must either make use of a compliant facility or install a suitable tilting crush.

Failure to comply may result in legal action, including seizure of animals, arrest, or prosecution for animal cruelty.
Signed
