Good afternoon

Please can someone go have a look at a brown dog that has a cyst hanging from his neck. One of the owners dog was out and asking a neighbor who indicated that the owner stays diagonally from them. I knocked to tell owner that his dog was out. When owner came to let the husky inside I noticed the dog with cyst hanging from neck. I asked the owner if he has taking him to get or Spca so they can have a look, he said he must still do it. I advised not leave it too late then I told me to mind my own business. Has 4 dogs that were in front of house, dogs look healthy food wise. Neighbor at corner house said they noticed when cyst was small but owner gets angry when talking to him. Tried to take picture but he put dogs at the back so I could not see them . Their back yard goes to parking at the back opposite Shoprite. I am just worried about the furboy.

King regards

Sharon
