Comments:	I returned the call of Mrs. Logday as requested. She informed me that the fish were on treatment but the worker who treated them did not tell Themba who met with us on the day , therefore he surrendered the fish. I explained to Mrs. Logday that we unfortunately did not know this and she understood. She was not angry or upset but very much understanding. I informed Mrs. Logday that the fish were assessed by a veterinarian and unfortunately it was decided that they be humanely euthanised, which they understood.
