I don't want trouble for the owner, I just want the dogs to be taken away so that they will be safer. There's two dogs but I noticed one has a roof only , not an enclosed kennel meaning it gets rained. I'm not sure about the other, if whether it has a proper kennel or not. The owner has a veranda but he still lets them get rained. He also has a little shack which I believe is his storage which he could use to shelter the dogs during rain but he never does. A few weeks ago when it was storming heavily, the dogs were outside and crying. The dogs are also chained and inappropriately. I can't remember when last they were let free, it's been months. Every morning, when he comes to feed the dogs, he will beat one of the dogs with his crutch for apparently not behaving well. He just did the same a few minutes ago hence I decided to message you. I will try to get a recording if possible the next time I hear him beat the dog. Please keep me anonymous
