Please describe the concern you have

Hello sir. I m the owner of my African grey. I went for holiday that's why i keep my bird to my friend pet shop to look after unlit I come back. But when came back i saw my bird was not there .from grassy park spca inspector came took my bird and the man who was working he did not understand properly English he just signed the paper then the inspector took my on 8th January. Couple of times i called them then they said they will call me no-one call me yet even I went last week at grassy park they said my bird was surrendered to the inspector then they took my number for call me but nobody called me. What kind of humanity! here i don't understand and what is my fault ?without asking me how can he take my bird please help me to get my bird.
