Inspector:	MAGDALENE MARSHALL

Type:	CASE DISCUSSION NOTE
Follow-Up Date:	2026-02-11
Comments:	The owner presented herself at the office on the 10th at 16h35 to claim her confiscated animals. She stated that she suffers from arthritis and has limited mobility . She was requested to provide her identification document and an affidavit , which she did not have in her possession at the time. She requested that we transport her to the police station to complete the documentation, or alternatively, collect the documents from her residence. She was informed, in a language she fully understands, of the requirements and procedures. She indicated that she would return with the necessary documentation. She was further advised that she has until the 12th to lay claim to the animals, provided she arrives before 13h00.
