Hi Peace,

Thanks for letting me know that the case was reopened.

I think I should mention that the person that was sent out to do the inspection could not find the place and ended up going to the wrong address.

He called me. I tried to give him directions but I don't think he ever ended up going there.

The driver went to 11, 4th Avenue in Athlone. It's important to note that this address is in Bokmakerie which is next to Hazendal.

Please ensure that the inspector who's investigating gets the address right.

Regards,
Nicolette
