Comments, if any:

Upon arrival, I was met by Martha who granted me access. Both Daisy and Survivor were still on running chains. The owner stated that daisy broke her collar and thats why she was placed back on a static chain and that they were still looking for a collar and chain for survivor. All three dogs appeared in good condition, with access to shelter and water. A warning notice was issued that read, place both Survivor and Daisy on a running chain within 4 days
