Comments: ADDITIONAL INFO: And here is another video taken a few min ago. The doggie has been tied up THE WHOLE DAY - NO WATER NO FOOD.
His playing with his bowl like he does now and then - his only entertainment.

I'm highly annoyed that its being allowed that he remains tied up either in ffont - or cooped up in the courtyard and then the bowls are left in the front yard.

I will not report something unnecessarily - and I'm not lying about what is happening.

Please do something

Good day

Has the inspectorate gone to this property??

The people work during the week but are home over weekends - they come home late in the evenings during the week.

The doggie is TIED UP, NO WATER OR FOOD BOWLS near him/her.

Why, must the doggie be TIED UP IN A BIG YARD ??? Yes, he is a bit naughty now and then but its because he is frustrated. His bloody tied up for most of the time!! They don't play or interact. But he/she needs to protect the property??

How exactly will that happen if his tied up?? He/she will get hurt extremely badly if someone should enter the property.

And what is he/she supposed to eat or drink when theres nothing for the whole day, all the time and they only come home late in the evenings.

Can you please, please, do something here?

We have to listen to him/her howling and moaning everyday. Barking for his owners when they are home but leaving him tied up ?! Look at him just laying in a wooden box - how uncomfortable is that??? And has to do his business right there where the kennel is...

Ladies....gentlemen.... please, I am asking that you do something here..
