Hi Inspectors and Moyo

On Saturday afternoon on 1st August I called the Control and Law enforcement in regards to Le-ass, the female dog being dragged from Lange to Rondebosch by Sipho and she wasn't looking good at all. People had been feeding her and giving her water for about two weeks or more. I live in Rondebosch.

I waited 5 hours, two follow up calls to the law enforcement and nobody pitched. This dog was suffering.

Eventually after a week of this, Sipho agreed to surrender the dog to me. She had distemper, went to the vet, quarantined and now finally healing and has been adopted.

I met a woman named Doreen Southwood, I don't really know her and she assured me that she had called Moyo because we needed SPCA to know that there is a second old dog at Sipho's house and it may well be infected with Distemper and suffering too.

The SPCA inspector on that weekend had managed to get the address from Sipho's friend explaining that Sipho lived just a few doors down. I saw the friend and Sipho tonight, and the friend said the police had been at his house but not Sipho's where the elderly dog is. But Law enforcement needed to ask where Sipho's house was to check in on the old dog. We has explained this. They have not been there according to Sipho, not the police or SPCA has been to his house.

Would somebody please go check on Sipho's house as the likelihood of that old dog being ill is very high as it is a highly contagious disease amongst dogs which in turn could effect the entire community of dogs. I told Sipho that SPCA will come and help him and if his old dog is sick, they will help.

I've also asked for feedback and please yet again, let me know when Sipho's old dog has been checked out.

The control inspector will have the address and you've got my previous email too.

Thank you.
