Hi Tamryn

Ok their request is fair. Him waiting an entire week is a problem. We can log the case and check if there are other animals and check how they are doing.

Kind regards

Good morning Tamryn

The dog has been collected for medical treatment. We would like you to do a site inspection as it is the third time the dog has been treated for wounds and it is alarming that he waited a week to seek help.

Kind regards
Beatrice

Good morning Beatrice

Thank you for your information. We note the history of the owner and dog in question .

Please advise if the dog has been surrendered to you or if it has been collected for medical treatment purposes?

Please also advise what further assistance is required from the SPCA?

Best Regards
Tamryn

Dog - Phsyco

Yesterday, we received a call from a member of the community in Ocean View to say that the above dog was attacked by another dog and has a hole in his throat. The incident happened a week ago according to our source. We collected the doggy yesterday. On our system we noticed that the same dog was here in May 2025 for a wound on the ear and was sterilized then. The second incident happened in September last year, also for a wound and SPCA was involved in this case. He received a Final Warning from you with a reference 22423. Please assist at your soonest.
