2 puppies are kept on this premises in Cape Town in a car wash parking lot . They are neglected. They seem very hungry and trying to eat garbage. Saw owner throw a stone at the one puppy. A person can see they are petrified and hungry. The car wash is on the corner of Rose and Castle road at the Bo Kaap area. Please send a inspector to rescue these poor puppies. They seem about 4 months old

I will. I was driving by so assumed it was the owner, but could have also been a worker in the car wash. I was to scared to go in by myself. It is heartbreaking to see such beautiful young pups so neglected and scared. Did you get the adress. BoKaap corner of Rose and Castle street. Do you think I should go and drop off some food.
