Dear Jo,

Thank you for your email and for your continued support and commitment to the animals in the Joe Slovo and Phoenix communities.

We are pleased to hear that the last visit was beneficial, and we appreciate Jason's involvement and assistance on the day. Thank you as well for bringing the additional cases to our attention.

We understand the need for ongoing assistance in these areas and would certainly like to continue supporting the community where possible. At present, our outreach schedule is fully booked for this month; however, we will look at arranging a follow-up visit during September. Once we have reviewed our outreach calendar and available resources, we will be able to provide you with potential dates.

In the meantime, should there be any urgent welfare concerns regarding the dogs that need assistance or rehoming, please feel free to forward the relevant details so that we can assist.

Thank you again for your dedication and for helping the community.

Kind regards,

Magdalene Marshall

Subject: Re: CoGH SPCA: Joe Slovo and Phoenix cases

Hi All,

Thank you so much for coming out for the last visit, and I'm sorry I wasn't able to be there. I know Jason is much better suited to handling these events, so I'm very grateful that he was able to be there. We really would like to make these visits a more regular occurrence, so this is a little plea to ask if you would please consider coming out again soon.

Jason mentioned to me this morning that there is a lady looking to give up her dogs, another lady who has three dogs she needs to find homes for, as well as a few other dogs that need some help.

It would be wonderful if we could arrange another visit and see how we can assist where possible. Please let us know what you think and when you may be available.

Thank you again for all your help and for the work you are doing.

Kind Regards

Jo Page
