| Comments:       | Rayghaana AUG 12, 14:13 Good afternoon, over the span of 5yrs weve had many cats making themselves at home, we unfortunately cannot accommodate because my kids have severe asthma, sinus and eczema.. the mom.cat has given to multiple kittens also which most has died, grew bigger and at one point here was 9 cats present which was unbearable. None of them are our own cats. We currently have 4 cats and 2 small cats.. as bakers it has caused tremendous stress over which they would eat our products even after giving them meals of their own. Not to mention to maintain 5 cats is extremely costly as well |
