Good day.

I would like to kindly ask for assistance on the following case. The dog on the picture have an owner, but unfortunately, he is struggling financially and cannot afford the necessary treatment for the dog's skin condition. He genuinely wants his dog to receive help and is willing to cooperate.

I am concerned about the dog's health and also about the possibility of the skin condition being contagious and spreading to other dogs. I have a dog of my own, so I am worried that my dog could potentially contract the condition as well.

Could you please assist by providing the dog with health assistance.

I would really appreciate your help, as I am concerned about the dog's wellbeing and the health of other animals in the area.
