Comments:	Sabrina Willenberg AUG 13, 11:00 Good morning I would like to report a case. At the address to follow , there is an adult Rottweiler being held in an enclosed metal cage / box with cutouts at the top of the front to allow air in. The dog can only see out of this if it stands on its hind legs, which is not possible as the metal box is not high enough to allow this. The guy, Michael, is an undertaker and the entire property is enclosed. To enter the door in the front opens out to the street. The cage / box is to the right once you enter the gate. Apologies I was not able to take pictures as he rushed us in and out. Address to follow.
