Comments:	ds Hankin AUG 16, 19:31 I have an issue with this. The bird has a partner - they have been calling to each other all day. I have watched them nest here together for 3 years. I will only agree to this if it will be released back into our garden. Other than its missing tail feathers it is fine. It can fly and appears otherwise well. I am happy to release it in a few days once I am happy it is completely fine again Show less Teah Adams is away, the conversation is forwarded. AUG 16, 19:31 Teah Adams Nikita September Linds Hankin AUG 16, 19:34 Also please understand my frustration in that I have been trying to reach you since 10am and now at nearly 8pm I receive a response. My children are sleeping and I'm almost ready for bed. Can we please make arrangements for tomorrow. TEAH MURPHY 2026-08-16 20:24
