Comments:	Teah Adams AUG 16, 20:23 My apologies for the incoveince but we only have 1 controller working over a weekend who has to monitor everything alone and deal with the whole world calling for their pets and or strays and i was inundated with phone calls and could not man the whatsapp, i have been experiencing network issues aswell which makes it difficult to work on anything without internet access . I will move your collection to tomorrow, however i cannot guarentee that the bird will be released as this will have to be decided by the wildlife team as well as the vets after assessing the bird. thank you. for understanding and for your patience Show more Teah Adams archived the conversation.
