You are hereby warned to:

1. Refrain from re-stocking, displaying, advertising, promoting, or selling glue traps at any of your outlets.
2. Review current procurement practices to ensure that glue traps are excluded from future orders.
3. Consider humane alternatives for rodent control and pest management.
4. Inform relevant management and purchasing personnel of the animal welfare concerns and potential legal implications associated with glue traps.

In light of the corrective action taken and the removal of glue traps from the Parow store, no further action is contemplated by the SPCA at this stage. However, the SPCA reserves all its rights to investigate any future complaints and to consider such action as may be appropriate in the circumstances should glue traps be reintroduced, or should information come to light suggesting practices that may result in unnecessary suffering to animals. Furthermore, we strongly encourage your organisation to review the continued sale of glue traps at all outlets nationwide and to consider removing such products from sale in the interests of animal welfare and in accordance with the principles embodied in the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962. Failure to address these concerns may result in the matter being revisited and assessed on the facts and circumstances then prevailing.

The SPCA appreciates your cooperation and trusts that your business will continue to support humane and responsible animal welfare practices.

This warning has been issued in terms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act No 169 of 1993. Failure to comply with this warning may render you liable for prosecution under the Animals Protection Act No 71 of 1962. Any person who:- obstructs, hinders or resists an officer authorised in terms of the Animals Protection Act No 71 of 1962 shall be guilty of an offence in terms of Section 8(4) of the aforementioned Act.
