General Report Comments: Upon my arrival the bakkie has been there for an hour, at the back of the pick-up without covering or shelter to protect them from inclement weather conditions. the animals were in distress and panting due to the weather. they had a 5ltr bottle of water with them to drink, i instructed the driver to sprinkle it on the animals so that they could cool off. I then organised the Midlands pounds to to transport the pigs to the abattoir that was 22km away and they did at the owner's costs.
