General Report Comments: The chickens and ducks are kept in groups according to the age and their slaughtered 7 weeks. She buys her chiks from a supplier in the midlands area and raised them as free range. The dogs are friendly towards the poultry and they also have access of the whole farm. She told us that she started the cattle farming recently and they have a big grazing area for them and a dam for them to drink water. they slaughter their chickens on sight since they have a small abattoir.
